

ANOTHER KIND OF SILENCE

A new play about the environmentalist Rachel Carson

"Well written, sharply intelligent, topical, tight and engrossing throughout"
Matt Holland, Director, Swindon Literature Festival

"A poetic tour-de-force"
Newbury weekly News

Hill Street Theatre Studio, 19 Hill Street - venue 41
1-24 August (not 11 or 18) 3.40-4.55pm
see back for details and map
Hill Street box office 0131 226 6522 fringe festival box office 0131 226 0000

www.anotherkindofsilence.co.uk

ANOTHER KIND OF SILENCE

A new play about the environmentalist Rachel Carson
A story of love, the ocean, politics and birdsong

Rachel who?

Rachel Carson

Born 1907. Died 1964.

Meet this remarkable woman as she reveals stories she never told in her life and hear how they reverberate today.

Rachel Carson – scientist, writer, pioneering ecologist – proved the link between pesticides and their damage to the environment, and single-handedly took on the US government and agro-chemical industry in her groundbreaking book 'Silent Spring', published in 1962. She was also a woman of failing health and intense private passions.

This show is not a history lesson. It is not about fear and despair. It is a love story.

"Liz Rothschild breathes new life into Rachel Carson"

Jonathon Porritt, Chair of the UK Sustainable Futures Commission

"It is rare to see such integrity in the theatre these days"

Nightingale Theatre, Brighton

Writer/Performer Liz Rothschild

Director Sue Mayo

Sound Artist Joseph Young

Designer Sue Condie

Show runs 1-24 August (not 11 or 18)
3.40-4.55pm

1-2 August Previews £5 all tickets

3, 9-10, 16-17, 23-24 August £10 (£8)

4-8, 12-15, 19-22 August £9 (£7)

Tickets available from Hill Street box office

0131 226 6522

and the fringe festival box office

0131 226 0000

The show will be at the Warehouse Theatre, Croydon
24-27 September and touring in the autumn.

More details on the website:

www.anotherkindofsilence.co.uk

